If possible, please could the following be split by main and discretionary scheme. I understand that this is not always possible due to how applications are processed.
1. Overall, as of 27 th April 2021, how many applications to the Test and Trace Support Payment Scheme have been:
Received?	306	398
Processed?	306	398
Accepted?	116	55
Rejected?	190	343
If possible, please could the following be split by main and discretionary scheme.
2. Since the scheme was extended to include parents or guardians of isolating children (announced in February, but introduced in March), how many applications have been:	Main	Discr
3. When the scheme was extended to cover parents and carers of self-isolating children, new funding was also announced for	No the discretionary scheme. Except for it now being open to parents and carers, did the new funding lead to any other widening of the eligibility criteria for the discretionary scheme?

4. At any point during the running of the scheme, did you run out of funding for the discretionary scheme (even if this was later topped up)?	No
5. If possible, please could you provide a breakdown of accepted and rejected applications by: gender, ethnicity, employment status, and disability status?	NA

Some of the rejected claims are because they were not completed as not all information was provided
