

Variation of a club premises certificate

Where a Club wishes to amend the Club Premises Certificate, the Act allows, in most cases, for an application to vary to be made rather than requiring an application for a new club premises certificate, including:

- varying the hours during which a licensable activity is permitted;
- adding or removing licensable activities;
- amending, adding or removing conditions within a licence; and
- altering any aspect of the layout of the premises which is shown on the plan.

A variation cannot be used to vary a certificate so as to:

- extend a time-limited certificate; or to
- transfer the certificate from one premises to another.

For the application process see the guidance notes issued for a new Club Premises Certificate.
