Dear Sir,

APPLICATION FOR A NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT PLAN FOR NEWICK PARISH UNDER THE LOCALISM ACT (2011)

Newick Parish Council hereby applies to undertake a Neighbourhood Development Plan under the provision of the Localism Act (2011)

This Plan will cover the whole of the civil parish of Newick, East Sussex, as shown on the attached map.

Newick Parish Council lies to the north of Lewes with a population of just under 2500.

Newick Parish Council believe the civil parish to be the appropriate area, to ensure that all in its community have the opportunity to help fully shape the look and feel of the parish for the future as it functions as a single community. Newick Parish Council is the lower tier local authority for the entire parish and represents the whole parish.

Newick Parish Council, constituted under Section 61G(2)(a) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, is considered a relevant body for undertaking a Neighbourhood Development Plan under the Neighbourhood regulations of the Localism Act.

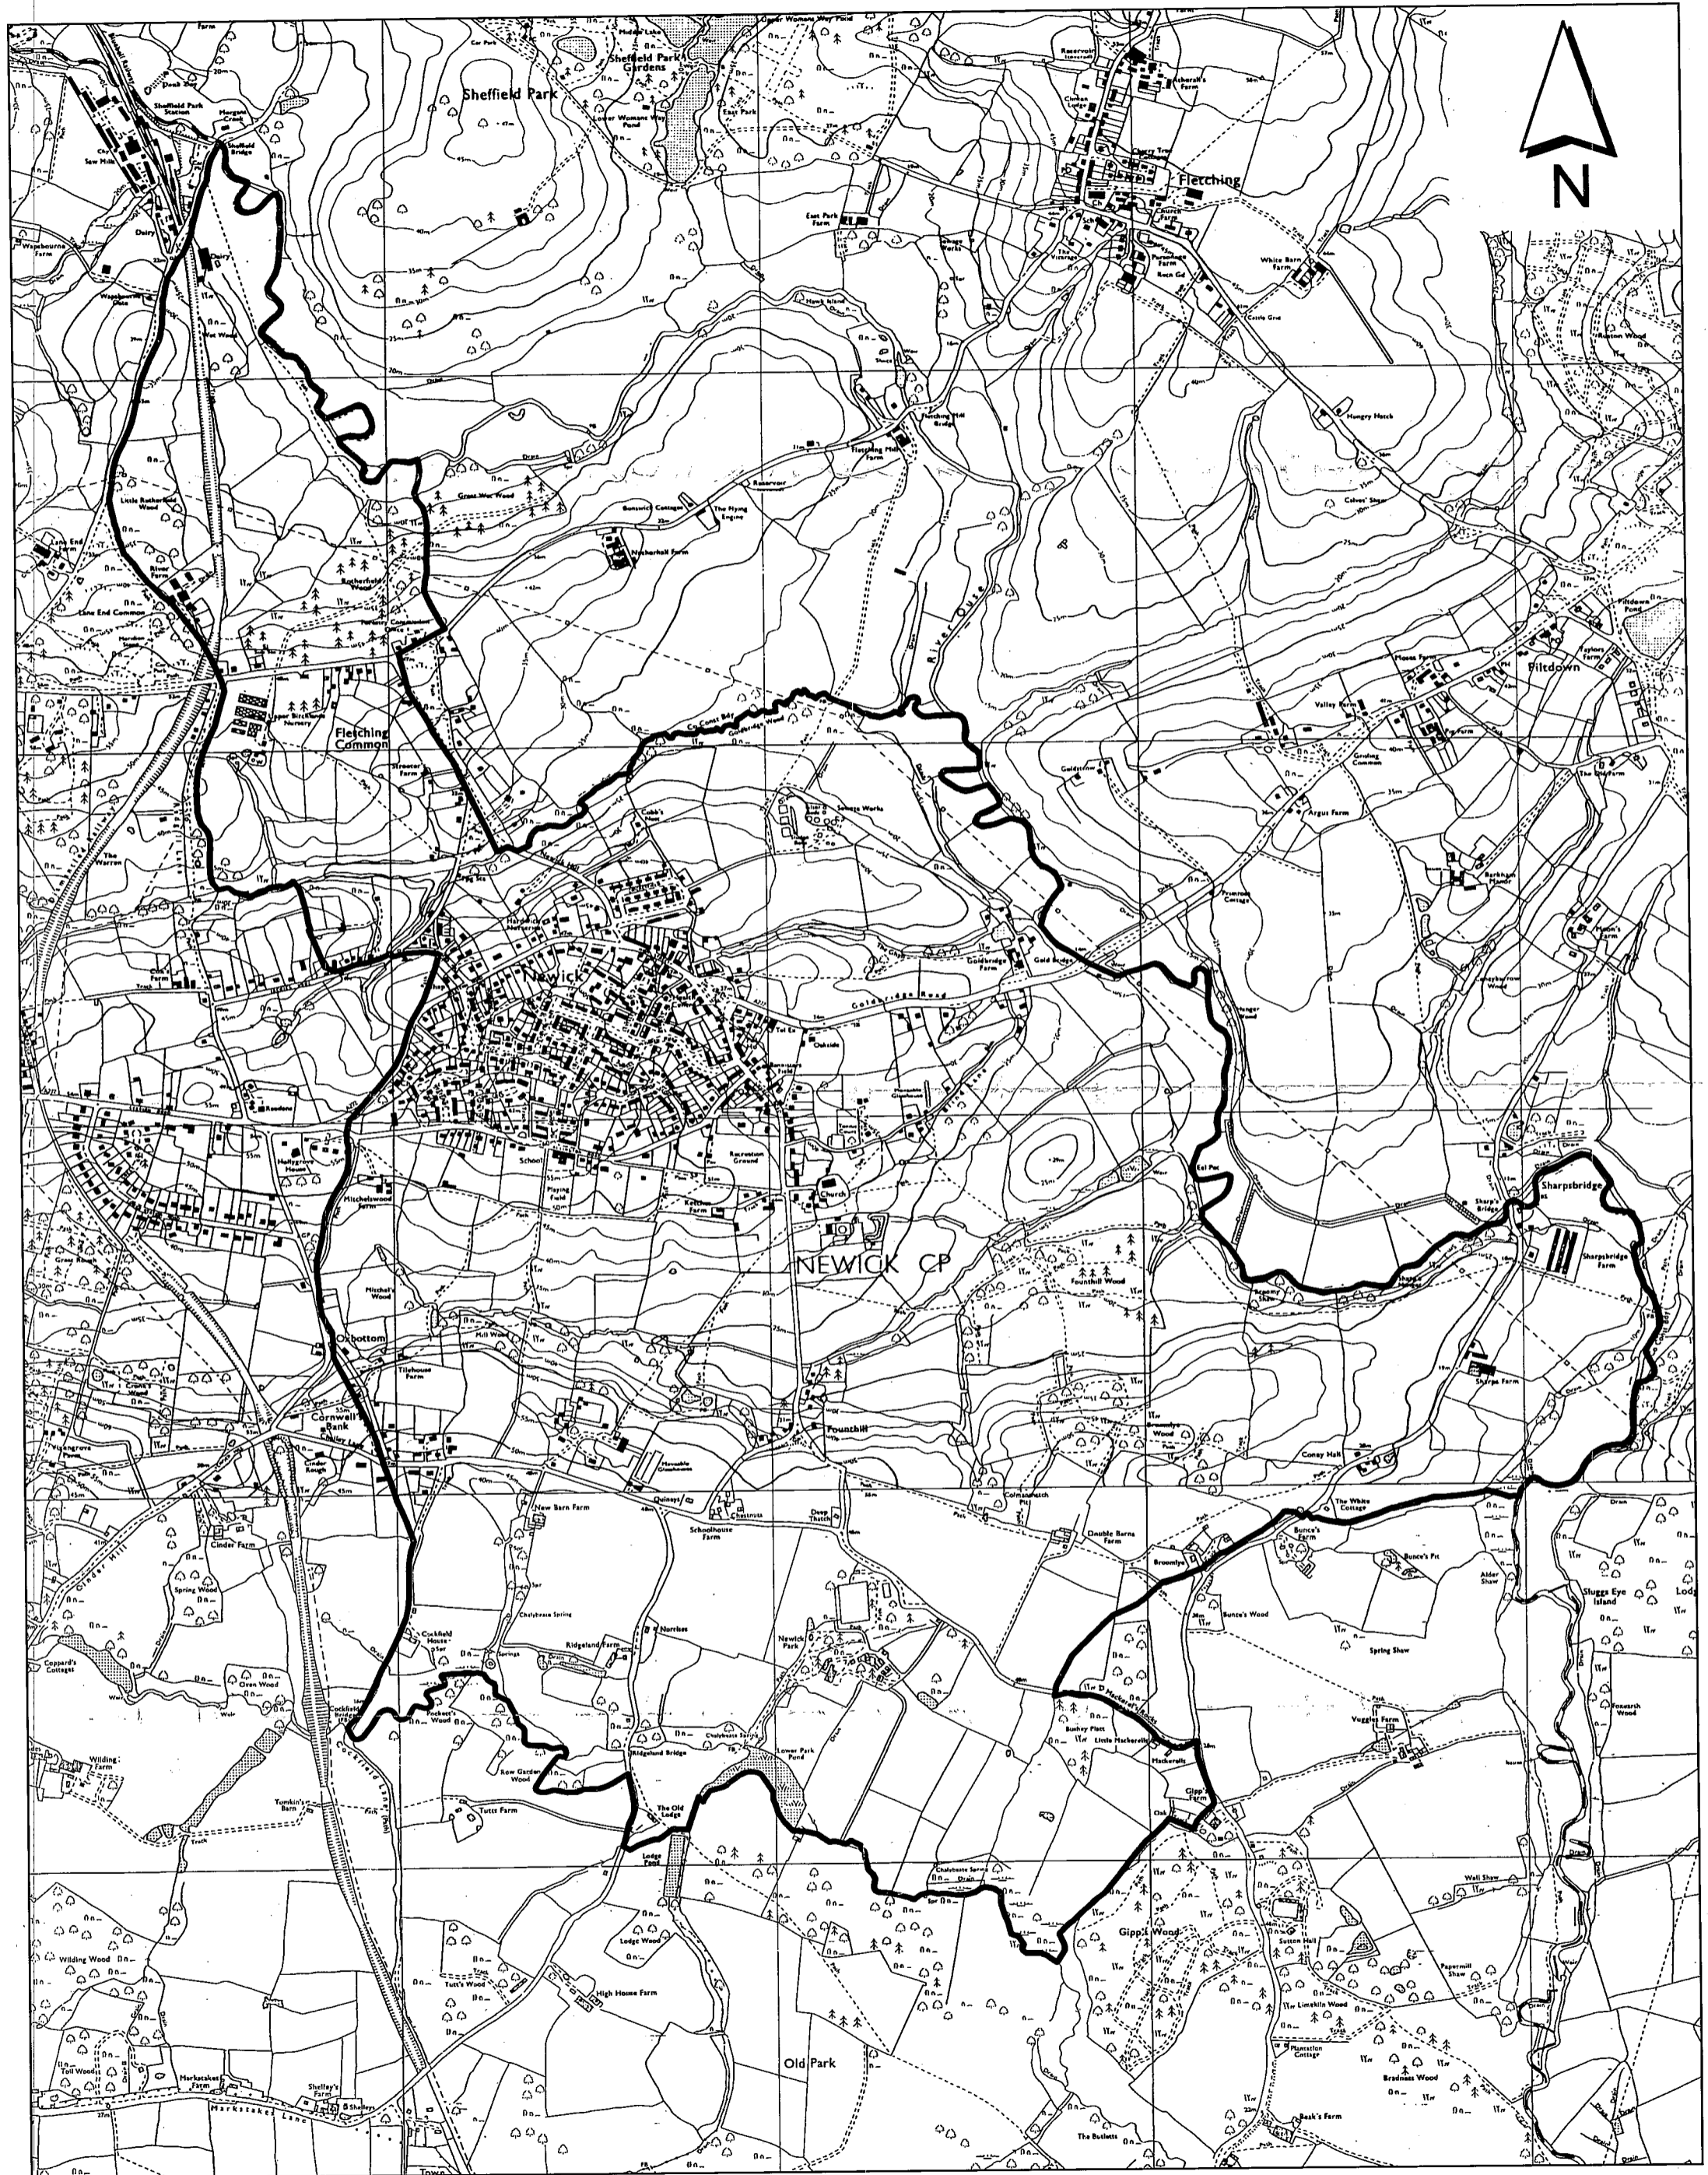

Yours faithfully

Linda M. Farmer
Clerk to the Council

Cllr. John Lucas
Chairman for the Council

Cllr. C. Armitage
Chairman for Planning Committee and Vice-Chairman for the Council
